From H. A. Prout, M. D., St. Louis. June 6, 1853:—Having seen your advertusement of a pure Holl and gin, worthy the confidence of physicians, I write to you with the view of procuring a sample of it. In drysical affections, and in some forms of renal disease, its efficacy has long been acknowledged, and, it has only faller into disuse because of the compound sold under the name of Boiland gin. I want to uge it at present in coilc, as it is an excellent remedy in infamilia coilc, and I cannot procure a compound to be relied on.

From J. B. Woodward, M. D., Waterbury, Vermont, May 2, 1833:—I am treating, at the present time, a chronic affection of the kidneys, which has shown itself very operinate to durette, and have been advised to use your Schiedam schapps.

From Dr. Van Pelt, New York, June 16, 1852:—Having found your schnapps very beneficial in several cuses of discassed hidneys, and having at present a cuse in which I would like to use it, I accept your kind offer to furnish me with a bettle. bettle.
